

Archivist's Awards Ceremony

MAY 7, 2014

National Archives, College Park, Maryland

Welcome

TO THE 14TH ANNUAL ARCHIVIST'S AWARDS

This first week of May is designated as Public Service Recognition Week, and today we recognize the outstanding achievements made by our colleagues here at the National Archives and Records Administration.

The staff members we recognize with Archivist's Awards have made significant contributions to our mission and have exemplified the values encapsulated in our six transformation pillars:

- One NARA,
- An Open NARA,
- An Agency of Leaders,
- A Great Place to Work,
- A Customer-Focused Organization, and
- Out in Front.

What all of us do at NARA every day ensures that the records of the U.S. Government are available now and in the future for the American people. It takes every one of us, working together, to successfully pursue NARA's mission to provide public access to Federal records.

Today we recognize the achievements of a selected few of our colleagues. This week we honor all public servants. And all year, we should appreciate the contributions all of us make to the nation.
